Friends House Meeting

Friends House Quaker Meeting

Please note: this page is about the Quaker meeting which meets in Friends House. Friends House is the building which houses the central offices of British Quakers.
If you have any enquiry about Quakers including booking rooms at Friends House please look on the Quaker website and make enquiries from there which will be much quicker and more useful than contacting us. If your enquiry is about room hire please call 020 7663 1094 or use this link to email the lettings office.

The Quakers of Friends House Meeting meet weekly on Sundays at 11:00 am and on Thursdays at 6.30 pm.

1st Sunday of the month Newcomers’ Forum 12:40

Last Sunday of the month Aspects of Quakerism 12:40

Friends House is located across Euston Road from Euston Station, London. (map).

All are welcome to attend. More information about your first Quaker meeting .

More about Friends House Quaker Meeting.

There is also a Programmed Quaker meeting held on Sunday afternoons once a month starting at 2.00pm. The dates for 2012 are the third Sunday of the month starting on 15 January.

For matters specifically relating to Friends House Quaker meeting only please email the Clerk of Friends House Quaker Meeting or call 020 7486 3229.

Public Transport:

Euston station (Northern, Victoria lines and national rail services). Euston Square station (Metropolitan, Circle and Hammersmith & City lines). Buses 10, 18, 30, 73, 205, and 390 all stop outside Friends House on Euston Road.

Parking:
Along the roads near Friends House, or at Euston Station (for a fee). The London congestion charge applies Monday - Friday 8.00 am - 6 pm on all streets south of Euston Road.

Children:
Children are welcome although the Meeting does not regularly include children. Arrangements for children are best made by phoning in advance, 020 7486 3229 or contact us for more information.

Mailing Address:
Friends House Quaker Meeting

Friends House

173-177 Euston Road

London NW1 2BJ

Lettings:
Friends House has rooms available to let for either hourly or daily uses. Details are on the national Quaker site . Email to enquire about availability.